Committee Comments:

November XX, 2024

The Committee relocated former Bankruptcy Rules 4.1 and 4.2(A) to this Rule in light of enactment of the Local Bankruptcy Rules.

RULE 1.1 SCOPE OF THE RULES

- (A) These Rules are known as the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois. They may be cited as Civil LR      and, Crim. LR     , and Bank. LR.
- (B) These Rules became effective on September 19, 2024.
- (C) These Rules apply in all proceedings in all of the Courts in this district proceedings in the Central District of Illinois except to the extent a Local Bankruptcy Rule imposes a conflicting requirement.
- (D) These Rules supersede all previous Rules and orders promulgated by this Court or any judge of this Court, and will apply to all cases pending at the time these Rules become effective regardless of when the case was filed.

Revised ~~2/2024~~ 1/2025

Committee Comments:

January XX, 2025

The Committee amended the rule to clarify the scope of these Rules in light of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of Illinois's enactment of Local Bankruptcy Rules. The amendment reflects removal of a separate section of bankruptcy rules and clarifies that these Rules remain applicable in bankruptcy proceedings unless a Local Bankruptcy Rule imposes a conflicting requirement. The Committee moved this rule out of the Civil Rules section because it applies to both the Civil and Criminal Rules.
